CHAPTER 118.

AN ACT to amend section 927, of the revised statutes relating to powers of city councils and village boards as to streets, etc.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Power of village boards of trustees as to streets, etc.

SECTION 1. Section 927 is hereby amended by adding after the words "or take ground for" the following words: "any street, lane, alley, public ground, square or other place, or for sewers or drainage purposes, or for," so that section 927, when amended shall read as follows: Section 927. The board of trustees of every such village and the common council of every city may exercise all the powers conferred on village boards by sections 895 to 904 inclusive, and proceed in the manner therein prescribed to lay out and open, change, widen or extend any street, lane, alley, public ground, square or other place, or to construct or open, alter, enlarge or extend any drain, canal or sewer, or alter, widen or straighten any water course, or take ground for any street, lane, alley, public ground, square or other place, or for sewers or drainage purposes, or for the use or improvement of a harbor, as well as by the provisions of their charters, and the provisions of the sections aforesaid shall be taken as applicable to such villages and cities.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1895.
